Winner of the Supplier of the Year 2005 program

SAINT-HYACINTHE, January 12, 2006. It is with great pleasure that we share with you the name of the winner of the Supplier of the Year 2005 program. Our congratulations go out to the team at Tafisa, a supplier of particule and melamine board. This award underlines the remarkable performance and exceptional quality services of the winning company. The fact is that throughout the year, the professionalism of the Tafisa team furthered the enhancement of our commercial offer.

We remind you that this performance assessment program targeting our 50 main suppliers began last January, and that all of the parameters that were considered during the year are documented through our quality control process (ISO 9001-2000).

The 2006 assessment program will begin in January.
